About Us

At Aarush Nutrascience, we understand that optimal nutrition plays a significant role in maintaining a healthy mind and body. We believe that nutritional supplements are not luxury products but are an essential part of daily life that support the journey towards better health. Founded in 2018, we are one of the most trusted manufacturers, suppliers, and exporters of premium quality wellness products. Our product range includes Anhydrous Citric Acid, Glucovin Energy Booster, Multivitamin Gummies, MR Pure Protein Powder, etc. Our team is composed of dedicated research scientists, pharmacists, nutritionists, and food technologists. Besides, we have modern technologies in place which provide us with a solid foundation. Adhering to a strict quality management system, we ensure that our products consistently meet the highest standards of excellence. With all this, we are moving rapidly towards setting new benchmarks in the industry.

Under the able management of our Proprietor, Mr. Ronak Patel, we have been able to enhance our capacity to formulate products in bulk. With his extensive experience and deep industry knowledge, we have been able to understand and cater to the diverse needs of our clients.
