About Us

Established in 2019, J.J. Agrofarm Private Limited has found a solid footing in the Indian market by catering to the increasing demands of fresh fruits and nutritious food products. With our head office in Nasik, Maharashtra, we are a supplier and trader of Brown Rice, Sugar Cane, Big Sugar, Sunflower Oil and other products. Our food products are a crucial component of Indian households, restaurants, food outlets, and other establishments, being consumed daily. Their freshness, high nutritional value, superior taste, and reasonable pricing have earned them recognition in the market. To make sure that these products are stored in a safe environment, we have established a large storing space which is equipped with temperature controlled spaces. We also ensure to maintain a complete hygienic atmosphere in our storage space to meet the food industry standards of cleanliness and hygiene. Our organization is recognised in the market due to our customer-centric approach and ethical values that we implement in our company. We make sure to provide our customers with complete support and solve their queries on time. Furthermore. Our organization also priorities creating lasting relationships with our customers by constantly communicating with them and taking their feedback on a constant basis. We also prioritize sustainability and ethical farming practices, working closely with our suppliers to reduce waste and minimize our impact on the environment.

A reputed base of vendors allow any organization to maintain strategic relationships with the trusted manufacturers who supply reliable products. Hence, we have developed a strong base of vendors who help our organization keep the quality promise by supplying quality-assured food products from the best farmers of the country. These vendors are selected upon being checked on various parameters including their prior performance, food quality, pricing and other factors. Due to the constant efforts of our vendors, we are able to establish our reputation in the market as a supplier and trader of Long White Rice, Fresh Banana, Fresh Pomegranate, Loose Sugar and other products. Our organization is supported by an effective distribution network which allows us to connect with the leading delivery destinations across the country. In addition to our distribution network, we also focus on quality packaging in order to ensure freshness and safety of our food products in the process of delivery.
