About Us

Ganesh Sales Agency is a notable trader and wholesaler of a high-quality, durable, and appealing range of floor grating, CP bathroom fittings, Jaquar bathroom fittings, toilet seats, Jaquar concealed cisterns, etc. With more than 34 years of expertise and skills, we have been offering an attractive array of products. We have become the preferred choice among builders, contractors, and homeowners by offering reliable and quality-tested products. We started the company with a small trading house selling basic bathroom accessories and fittings to the customers. Today, we have become the largest providers of high-grade products that are provided in a range of sizes, designs, and dimensions.

Our sophisticated warehousing unit ensures safe and efficient storage and handling of our vast array of products. We use modern inventory management systems to maintain the stock levels and deliver orders to the clients promptly. With a systematically designed distribution network, we ensure timely and safe delivery of the products to our customers.
